Mr. John Starr
444 Park Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear John:

Since neither Hal nor I have received your response/views on the ALFIE ENT, LIMITED Prospectus, I thought I would explain my need to hear pro or con at once.

I am enclosing a letter from a former associate, now head of one of the major investment groups in America; his letter is self-explanitory, I'm sure.

As we discussed on the phone some six weeks back, the concept of forming a business organization around Hal's works is manditory. Otherwise, he will be trampled by those who do.

I can go no further until your views are known.

Sincerely Yours,

John G. Christian
